

SUCCESSWISE MARKETING COACH

JOB POST

SUCCESSWISE MARKETING COACH

We're seeking a hard-working, detail-oriented professional that has experience in marketing consulting, client management, and business systems to work with our extraordinary team at Successwise.

As a marketing and business coach at Successwise, you'll have the opportunity to work with and coach our amazing clients (business owners and their teams from various industries around the world).

Business owners come to Successwise because they are frustrated with the increasingly complex and noisy world of marketing. They know marketing needs to happen for business growth but have yet to find their own path to marketing success. They usually have tried various marketing strategies, attempted to work with agencies, or struggled to find time to focus on marketing. This has led them to us. They want help to craft a direct response marketing strategy that works and guidance on implementing strong sustainable systems that will continue to generate new leads and retain existing customers.

Our elite one-to-one coaching program helps clients create and implement a clear marketing plan via the strategies we've created over the last 15 years. We review current gaps in the business, identify low-hanging fruit opportunities, set goals and KPIs, consult clients on a team as it relates to marketing, and provide sound recommendations on specific marketing strategies, internal operation systems, and implementation plans.

Here's an overview: <https://successwise.com/implementation-roadmap/>

Day to day you'll correspond with clients and their teams and keep them on track with 90-day goals, team training and development, and the execution of various marketing and business strategies.

As a Successwise Coach, you'll come to us with a wide range of knowledge in all things marketing and learn more than you could imagine about the best human-to-human-based marketing strategies that exist.

We are looking for someone with professional insight and specific knowledge in various sectors of marketing such as high-level business strategy related to organizational structure, hiring, team management, content strategy, messaging, sales funnels, lead generation, lead nurturing, sales copy, and more.

In addition to learning more than you can imagine while working with great clients, this is an opportunity to work with a team of A-players, remotely. At Successwise, we're challenged, respected, and are consistently given opportunities for growth.

The ability to organize, plan and structure your workload in an autonomous fashion will be absolutely key to your success in this role. We neither have the time nor the inclination to micromanage you. Being highly autonomous and communicative is key.

THE SIX NON-NEGOTIABLES OF THIS ROLE:

- Entrepreneurial Experience. It's important that all of our coaches have experience in running their own businesses in the past to draw on real experience. While we focus on marketing, much of our coaching is high-level business coaching.
- Project and client management. We need someone who can come in and create internal systems for our clients and help optimize the systems we currently have internally. A large part of this role is creating and adhering to deadlines, successfully communicating strategies and engaging the client teams, and moving simultaneous projects forward to completion. It is essential that you truly care about your clients.
- Killer people skills. As the point person and face of our coaching program, you'll need excellent written and spoken communication skills. We need our clients and our team to love working with you.
- Being detail-oriented. You'll be setting up internal systems for our clients and following each client's success journey. We need someone who doesn't drop balls, pays attention to detail, and can stay on top of every step for every client.
- Being teachable and coachable. There will be a LOT of learning on the job as we do marketing and coaching very differently. There is no place here for know-it-alls. We hire based primarily on attitude.
- Being a self-starter. Goals will be clearly defined from the outset. Often, it will be your job to determine what needs to happen, when, and how. The attitude of continually starting things on your own is very important.

PERKS OF THE JOB:

- This is a completely remote position, so you'll have the ability to create your own schedule.
- 30 days of paid vacation with an additional day off on your birthday.

- A yearly home office stipend.
- A yearly team education stipend.
- Competitive salary with growth opportunities.
- Gain management and coaching experience.
- An opportunity to grow your personal brand and work with a team of A-players.

ROLE REQUIREMENTS:

- 40 Hours/Week
- At least 3 years experience in marketing.
- An array of general marketing knowledge. We are not looking for specialists.
- Must be very comfortable with email marketing.
- Previous teaching experience is a plus. (Does not need to be consulting experience.)
- Experience in paid advertising is a plus.
- Experience in growth marketing is a plus.
